

Taylor Skoglund Biography

My name is Taylor Skoglund, and I have been involved in the St Paul Snelling community for 8+ years with my experience as a Banking Center Manager at Old National Bank, as well as growing up in and around the community. My husband and I currently live on the West Side of St. Paul with our son and our dog.

Since 2016 I have worked at Old National Bank, where I have held many roles. I have volunteered and sponsored numerous events in the community. We most recently sponsored the Cinco de Mayo festival in Saint Paul, the proceeds for this event helped support the West Side Boosters which is the local youth sports club.

I'm a people leader, who loves to encourage my team to be the best versions of themselves and love to see growth not only in my contemporaries, but in all organizations, I am a part of.
